ON THE JOB
Katie		Breen	2004	I'm working at a Commercial Real Estate Company in Boston doing Project Management. I'm still learning the ropes about the whole construction thing, but I'm liking it so far!
Lori		Marshall	2004	I'm helping book tours for student tours at a company called EF Explore America (aka EF Education). I'm having a good time working here and learning alot. The people are really fun and they have alot of happy hours (on the company). =)
Avery		McGlenn	2004	Currently, am the Assistant Director of Athletics at the Culver Academies in Culver, Indiana. I am also the assistant coach of the girls hockey team.
Nicole		Lehrhoff	2003	I teach fifth grade in a public elementary school in New Jersey. I am just completing my second year.
Toby		Mandel	2003	Environmental Science/ Climate Change
Christina		Collins	2002	2002-2004, Morgan Stanley: Financial Advisor June, 2004-Present: 2nd Lt. in the USMC
Maura		Crowell	2002	For the past two years I've worked at Connecticut College serving as the assistant ice hockey coach and volunteer lacrosse assistant coach. I also obtained a master's degree in teaching with a specialization in German at the secondary level. I'm now the head coach of the women's hockey team at U Mass Boston.
Kelly		Roos	2002	I work at Wesleyan University in Middletown, CT as a Development Officer.
Casey		Schofield	2002	Currently enrolled in clinical psychology PhD program. In a perfect world I will teach psychology at a small liberal arts school like Colgate or a community college... But I expect that the flexibility of clinical work is more realistic. Time will tell - I'm still 4 years away from finishing graduate school....
Annie		Stover	2002	Live in SF, work in advertising
Jenn		Buck	2000	I'm pursuing a Master's in journalism at UC-Berkeley and interested in international and war reporting.
Lise		Lynam	2000	Current job-- Legislative Director Congressman Rob Simmons (R-CT) 215 Cannon House Office Building Washington, D.C. 20515
Christina		Sandoe	2000	I just started as Director of Admissions at a small private school in the DC area. I enjoy the work, and the kids are really cute. I have spent a lot of time abroad, too, doing humanitarian work in post-war kosovo after graduation, and some time in South America. But I think I'll be in DC for a little while.
Andrea		Thomas	1999	After working in Admissions at Hamilton College for four years, I decided to go to law school. I am currently in 3rd and final year at Emory University School of Law.
Angela		Chongris	1998	I just finished nursing school and work in a local Emergency Room.
Mary		Carpenter	1997	After working six years in academic publishing (most recently as a history editor), I took two years off to get a masters in american history. Having completed that program this spring, I'm currently looking for a job--either in a private school (ideally teaching high school history) or in publishing.

ON THE JOB

Lori	Krim	Gavrin	1996	After graduating from Colgate, I went to Univeristy of Pennsylvania and got my Ph.D. in organic chemistry. Graduate school was VERY different from undergrad - first off, I lived in Philly (a big change from Hamilton NY!) and also there was a ton of work - all the time. It was a five year program, involving classes, teaching, and research. I currently work as a medicinal chemist at Wyeth Research. I have worked on several projects such as rheumatoid arthritis, type II diabetes and curing menopausal symptoms while at Wyeth over the past 4 years.
Paige	Jones	Stoecker	1995	I've been working for AT&T since 1996, in New Jersey, then for 4 1/2 years in Germany. I've been back in NJ since Oct 04.
Catherine	Bryant	Crocker	1994	After teaching Mathematics and coaching hockey and lacrosse at Kent School from 1994-2001, I left to teach at Riverdale Country School in the Bronx, where I also coached lacrosse. I decided not to go back to Riverdale next year and have taken a part-time job working for Coleman & Company Executive Search in Larchmont, NY.
Heather	Petersen	Hildebrandt	1993	I am a CPA who has worked as a finance manager at a major academic medical center as well as a financial planning manager for the nation's largest HMO. Recently I started a second bachelor's program in nursing, and hope to combine my finance knowledge with my clinical experience to take on a leadership role in healthcare operations.
Melissa		Ehlers	1991	Assistant Director of Pediatric Anesthesia at Albany Medical Center (NY)
Susan	Curtin	Gouldin	1991	I have a law degree and practiced for 5 years before starting a family.
Mike		Fitzgerald	1990	Director of Student Activities at Cardigan Mountain School in Canaan, NH (I also teach, coach, and serve as a dorm parent). I have also lived and worked in Whitefish, Montana (1993-1999) and San Francisco (1990-1993).
Kathleen		Flynn	1990	Head Softball Coach at James Madison University since 2001.
Nicole	Truman	Harding	1990	Currently a stay-at-home mom
Natalie	Karouna	Karouna-Renier	1989	I am a molecular ecotoxicologist, currently as a research associate with the University of West Florida in Pensacola, FL but soon to be at the USGS Patuxent Wildlife Research Center in Maryland.
Annemarie		Sawkins	1988	Art, Architecture, Hisotric presevation, Travel, salsa dancing, ballroom dancing. I am a curator at a university art museum where I also teach art history.
tracy	kien	rosen	1985	I work full time doing market research (running focus groups). It is great fun.
Hollie		West	1985	Special Projects Manager at the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages
Barbara	Boyd	Yosaitis	1985	I work in private practice as an Internal Medicine Doctor in Faifax, VA.
Lori	Tavares	Zito	1985	Still play hockey and coach. Working for URS Corporation in Phoenix Arizona.
Kimberly	Laumeister	Rettstatt	1984	I used to be a media buyer for an advertising agency in NYC. Now I am a reading teacher in Glastonbury, CT.

ON THE JOB
Jon		Ticker	1984	I practice orthopaedic surgery on Long Island. I specialize in the shoulder, which is 90% of my practice, in addition to sports medicine. I have edited two books on shoulder surgery, in addition to other publications, and lecture in this area. I have a teaching appointment at Columbia
Janet	Stanton	Burt	1983	Writer/editor
Carol	Waller	Malach	1983	I started my own consulting group 4 years ago after working for 15 years for a market research company. I focus on research in K-12 and higher ed. I love being the boss!
Claudia		Zayfert	1983	I am a psychologist on the faculty of Dartmouth Medical School where I do research and clinical work on post traumatic stress disorder.
Claudia		Zuckerman	1983	I am a litigator in the Office of General Counsel, United States Food and Drug Administration.
Cathy		Frank	1981	I am a software project manager.
Kim		Waldron	1981	Spent 10 years away from Colgate in graduate and post-graduate education/research. Returned to Colgate to teach, then moved into administration. Currently the secretary of the college and secretary to the board of trustees.
Sally		Campbell	1980	College Administrator from 1983-1995 *Gettysburg College ('83-85) *Colgate University ('85-95) Mom 1988-Present Farmer 2002-Present Real Estate Salesperson (Martin Real Estate) 2004-Present
Katheryn	Sheldon	McHugh	1980	Alumni Director at Paul Smith's College in upstate New York
Susan	Calhoun	Nicholl	1980	I started my own consulting business once the demands of children made full-time, offsite employment too difficult--a fairly standard path for women who were gung-ho on their careers in the '80s. Now, I doubt that I could go back to the traditional workplace.
Joy	Fellenzer	Paterson	1980	I am a lawyer, but gave that up when the kids were born. Maybe I'll go back to it sometime. I'm doing ski patrol in the winter at Okemo, Vt and love being outside and the physical aspect and mental challenges of my duties. My 3 older kids have also been involved in snowboard instructing there.
Melanie	Ellis	Streed	1980	I teach Latin now to 6th and 9th graders.
Margaret		Banitch	1979	I have been in private chiropractic practice for 21 years.
Martha		Buyer	1979	I am an attorney practicing telecommunications law. While my primary office is outside of Buffalo, I also have an office in Boulder, CO, and I'm admitted to practice in Colorado, Wisconsin and Massachusetts. I write a column at least once/month in a legal journal, and I have been published a number of times in the leading telecommunications journal, Business Communications Review. I am also working on my junior international ice dances, and I am a gold-level dance test judge. Also, for the past 15 years, I have worked as a race coach for junior ski racers (through age 12)
Susan		O'Donnell	1979	Worked as a Registered Nurse until 1993 when I had my first spinal fusion, after which I was declared disabled. Re-educated as graphic artist. Going to physical therapy has almost turned into a full-time job this past year! Metalsmithing, teaching Photoshop and knitwear design to bring in some $$.

ON THE JOB
Ruth	Smith-Manfred	Wuzniak	1979	After Colgate I worked in Public Relations, then went back to school to become a Nurse. I love the healthcare profession and have worked for the same Doctor for 19 years. I currently work in Pediatrics and Family Practice. I love my job and hope to be able to retire in 5 years to enjoy travelling, etc.
Manuela	Amram	Bonnesen	1978	I currently work at a Children's Hospital running an outreach program for at risk teenagers.
Jeanne	Follansbee	Quinn	1978	English Professor at University of North Carolina at Greensboro (but still live in Boston--don't ask!--I commute...)
Mei Ling		Yee	1978	Solo practitioner in Comprehensive Ophthalmology with emphasis on cataract, glaucoma and non surgical facial rejuvenation.
Sally	Boothe	Bienkowski	1977	Physical Therapist (per diem) and also work in my husband's office (orthopedic surgery practice)
michael		mcgowan	1977	Family solid waste and driving range business.
Ruth		Miller	1977	I'm currently the executive director of a very small foundation in NYC. We give grants towards engineering education. I work 3 days a week, which is great.
Colleen		Ranney	1977	I'm an environmental scientist, working for an engineering consulting firm and have been working in hazardous/radioactive waste remediation field for 23 years (since graduating from Columbia 1982).
Alison	Barrett	Abbott	1976	I am currently working freelance, having sold my textile design company in 2001. Also working on my own artwork and on a book about my 20 years in the fashion industry. Wishing I could be on nantucket full time. I keep threatening to play for MOE- Mom's on the Edge-hockey team. The name alone is almost enough to get me on the ice, but I'm afraid I'll hurt myself!
Carol		Auster	1976	Sociology Professor - Franklin and Marshall College
Madeline		Bayliss	1976	Have had a dual career in the financial services and technology, as senior management for marketing and sales.
Gay	Gordon	Gordon-Byrne	1976	Professional Sales of High-Technology and Financial Solutions for the Fortune 500. since 1977
Joanne		Spigner	1976	I run my own consulting business doing meeting facilitation and training for companies and non-profits. Also had prior careers in corporate finance and as a department store buyer.
Patti	Frazer	Lock	1975	Cummings Professor of Mathematics, and Chair of the Department of Mathematics, Computer Science, and Statistics at St. Lawrence University. Co-author of over 20 mathematics textbooks.
Debra		Wallerstein	1975	I practice Labor Law for seven years before being disabled by a terrible case of Crohn's disease.
Tom		Iampietro	1974	Current Work: Chair: Department of History Head Coach: Women's Lacrosse Hamden Hall Country Day School Hamden, CT 06518 Senior Partner: Educational Edge, LLC (academic and college counseling)
Mary Kay		Leonard	1974	eclectic career as I have so many interests. Private practice of law; state government as a lawyer and then running the children's agency in MA; 3 private sector jobs--in an internet start up, founder driven company in its growth years and then a sale to a publicly traded company. Now at United Way of America leading Investor Relations group.

OUTSIDE INTERESTS
Maura		Crowell	2002	This year I helped out with Special Olympics Speed Skating in Norwich, CT, and that was pretty fun. I still keep in touch with my 'little sister' from the Hockey Girls Program. In terms of hobbies, I'm really into all sorts of music. I love road trips b/c I can listen to my CDs & XM Radio for hours. I also love going to concerts. I've been playing a fair amount of golf lately and if I had more money, I would play more frequently. I need to work on my short game. I've been dabbling in tennis, but I definitely need to work on that before playing for real. I love the ocean as well as the mountains and really just like being outside. I speak German and love the German culture, too. It was my major in college and now I have a master's in teaching the language as well.
Kelly		Roos	2002	Since moving to Connecticut I've gotten involved in a Little Sister program similar to the Hockey Girls. I have also developed a slight interest in running, although I definitely cannot call it a hobby.
Jenn		Buck	2000	I'm a photographer and still active in the LGBTQ community, and trying to get Colgate to offer more queer studies classes and be a more active and queer-friendly place.
Lise		Lynam	2000	Volunteer -- Washington Scholarship Fund
Mary		Carpenter	1997	Andy and I get up to the Adks (aka heaven on earth) as much as we possibly can for hiking, canoeing, swimming, cross country skiing, and (at least for Andy) fly fishing. We love Washington, DC but have been talking about moving back up north.
Lori	Krim	Gavrin	1996	Hobbies: Hockey (obviously) - since Colgate I have played on the Wharton Wildmen (UPenn Business school team) and the Philadelphia Freeze (a women's team) and my Wyeth company team, hiking/camping, traveling. Other interests: my husband is a baseball fanatic and in addition to his card collection, we like to go to games a lot! Go SOX!!
Heather	Petersen	Hildebrandt	1993	Soccer coach, regional referee
Susan	Curtin	Gouldin	1991	Very busy currently with my kids but have started horseback riding again. Don't seem to have time yet to get back to skating!
Mike		Fitzgerald	1990	For the past 3 years, when not working at Cardigan, I have been building a house for myself and my family in Peacham, Vermont (Northeast Kingdom). Despite being over budget and behind schedule, I am confident I will finish it some day. I am also a graduate student at Dartmouth College's MALS program. My wife, Nora, works at Dartmouth as an Assistant Dean of Student Life.....Yes, that's probably how I got in.
Nicole	Truman	Harding	1990	hockey, hockey, hockey, waterskiing, alpine skiing, snowmobiling, taking care of my toddler
Annemarie		Sawkins	1988	Historic Preservation, gardening Please send alumni game info early and I'll try to make it some time. GO Gate!!
Hollie		West	1985	Travel and languages are huge passions.

OUTSIDE INTERESTS
Barbara	Boyd	Yosaitis	1985	I volunteer at school and help coach my daughter's softball team. I really feel passionate about the need to encourage girls to become involved in sports. Sports are so important for kids; as it encourages healthy kids and instills them with a respect for friendship, health, rules and competition.
Lori	Tavares	Zito	1985	Member of greater Phoenix Orienteering Club. Love to hike, camp, or do anything that keeps me away from ringing cell phones and computers.
Kimberly	Laumeister	Rettstatt	1984	mountain biking, tutoring at an inner city school.
Jon		Ticker	1984	I volunteer with various sports teams, including a local university and local soccer. I was Chair or the Medical Committee for the 2002 USGA Open Championship at Bethpage Black Course. We all ski at Hunter Mt, where our son races.
Carol	Waller	Malach	1983	Trustee, Rush-Henrietta Education Foundation
Claudia		Zayfert	1983	Hiking, mountain biking, skiing, rock climbing
Claudia		Zuckerman	1983	I collect antique medicine bottles, I enjoy sea kayaking, and I have walked among the penguins in and around the Antarctic Peninsula.
Cathy		Frank	1981	I am on the Board of Directors for our town library and president of the Board of Directors for my son's day care.
Kim		Waldron	1981	travel in the UK, growing things ('gardening' would be an exaggeration and sounds too old), cooking
Sally		Campbell	1980	Watching my children play sports and make music (All three kids in travel sports--we are on the road alot!) Caring for our Land and Animals/Gardening Hamilton Central School Board President (and related activities) Running with my 'girlfriends'
Katheryn	Sheldon	McHugh	1980	Coach soccer and hockey, active in community. Would not have continued to play hockey throughout my adult life if it wasn't such a great game that also happens to offer an opportunity to meet some of the best people there are!
Susan	Calhoun	Nicholl	1980	Lots of involvement in community issues (education, nonprofits, etc.)
Joy	Fellenzer	Paterson	1980	Travel, skiing, horseback riding, oil painting and just generally managing the household...
Melanie	Ellis	Streed	1980	My hobby is chauffeuring these days. I take people to piano lessons, soccer, baseball and lacrosse. For next year we are adding drum and violin lessons - could be a little crazy.
Margaret		Banitch	1979	My play passions are sailing and ice hockey.
Martha		Buyer	1979	I volunteer a great deal of time, both as an attorney and other. I am presently a Vice President of the Society of Telecommunications Consultants, and a board member of a professional theater company and music festival. I play a lot of tennis and have just gotten started with running. I also skate at least once a week.
Susan		O'Donnell	1979	I've been 'running' my dog in agility competitions the past 7 years.

OUTSIDE INTERESTS
Ruth	Smith-Manfred	Wuzniak	1979	Love to ski, skate, swim, sail, beach, hike etc. I am still the outdoors type. Have climbed Mt. Washington, skied a glacier, scuba in Bahamas...I will try it all!!!! I love to travel internationally - Europe, Australia, Caribbean, going on a cruise to Alaska in Aug. 05... Love it all!!!
Mei Ling		Yee	1978	We love to travel. My motto is 'The world is a big place and we need to see most of it.' Travelling is a real eye-opener. The global perspective is enlightening as we are so 'America- centric' as a society.
Sally	Boothe	Bienkowski	1977	School volunteer, board member Northeast Harbor Sailing School (Northeast Harbor, Maine). Enjoy sailing, skiing, Nantucket basket making and watching my kids play hockey, soccer and lacrosse.
michael		mcgowan	1977	Coach youth hockey, baseball, and football. Involved in charitable causes in Minneapolis.
Ruth		Miller	1977	Lots of volunteering at my daughter's schools, hobbies are all kinds of needlework, knitting etc.
Colleen		Ranney	1977	I coach and help run the soccer club in my town, a very large undertaking in this mostly urban/minority city where players/parents have no access to email, parents work 2 jobs and have little time to transport their kids to practices/games. I have also coached basketball at my kids Catholic grammar school and have recently been made (volunteer) Athletic Director for this 500+ student school. I am involved in City Strategic Planning and redevelopment issues in my town and, more recently, in changing the political machine that has run the town since 1968 race riots.
Alison	Barrett	Abbott	1976	Gardening, working with a shelter for homeless abused women and watching my kids play sports
Carol		Auster	1976	Ice hockey Birding Love my cats
Madeline		Bayliss	1976	Stay active in both community and professional organizations, as well as participate in local Colgate club activities. Interest in education, swim team, executive networking. Still root for my Yankees, cheer for the local Philly teams and attempt to get better at golf.
Gay	Gordon	Gordon-Byrne	1976	Skiing (love to race), Genealogy.
Joanne		Spigner	1976	Volunteer for Colgate (a lot) and love it. Also do a lot of different types of volunteering in the local public school district and for various community organizations.
Patti	Frazer	Lock	1975	Still a big fan of women's hockey -- go to all the games at St. Lawrence University.
Debra		Wallerstein	1975	I held the Stanley Cup above my head in 1982 after my NY Islanders won it for the third time. I was at that game, too. I have a picture of me kneeling next to the Cup, my arms around it and the biggest sh*t-eating grin on my face! I have been a Florida Panthers season ticket-holder since day one. Because of this, I got to go to the NHL Draft and attend All-Star Weekend a few years ago. That was really fun! I am an advanced and dedicated needlepointer, an avid reader, still a devoted Lord of the Rings fan and I have volunteered and helped raise more than $1 million for the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America.
Tom		lampietro	1974	coaching...sailing...writing...
